

Grades 3-5

Cyber Safety Assessment Review

Question #1

Personal information that should never be shared online is:

- A) address and phone number
- B) names of your friends
- C) your school name and town you live in
- D) All of the above

Answer #1

Personal information that should never be shared online is:

- A) address and phone number
- B) names of your friends
- C) your school name and town you live in
- D) All of the above

Question #2

When using email, you should always:

- A) Open and read all emails very carefully
- B) Reply back to harassing emails to tell them to leave you alone
- C) Delete all emails (unread) from people you do not know
- D) Download all email attachments to your computer

When using email,
you should always:

- A) Open and read all emails very carefully
- B) Reply back to harassing emails to tell them to leave you alone
- C) Delete all emails (unread) from people you do not know
- D) Download all email attachments to your computer

Question #3

The best thing about online communication is:

- A) You can post embarrassing pictures of your friends
- B) You are completely hidden so you can say anything to anyone
- C) You can post messages to others and they will never know who sent it
- D) None of the above

Answer #3

The best thing about online communication is:

- A) You can post embarrassing pictures of your friends
- B) You are completely hidden so you can say anything to anyone
- C) You can post messages to others and they will never know who sent it
- D) None of the above

Question #4

A cyber bully is a person who creates blogs, websites, emails, or phone messages or pictures that spread lies, transmit threats, or other hurtful things.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

Answer#4

A cyber bully is a person who creates blogs, websites, emails, or phone messages or pictures that spread lies, transmit threats, or other hurtful things.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

Question #5

Even if you use an online username, what you post on the Internet can lead others to find your information. You must be careful what you post in your profile.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

Answer#5

Even if you use an online username, what you post on the Internet can lead others to find your information. You must be careful what you post in your profile.

- A) TRUE
- B) FALSE

Question #6

Online predators are recognizable to you because:

- A) They use screen names that tell you who they really are
- B) They tease or insult you in order to gain your trust
- C) They send you their picture so you know who you are talking to
- D) None of the above

Online predators are recognizable to you because:

- A) They use screen names that tell you who they really are
- B) They tease or insult you in order to gain your trust
- C) They send you their picture so you know who you are talking to
- D) None of the above

Question #7

When using your computer to swap music with others, be aware that there is real danger in doing so because:

- A) Swapping all music is illegal
- B) Opening email lets other people have access to your computer
- C) Many nasty viruses can be transferred to your computer
- D) Most music files are incomplete

Answer#7

When using your computer to swap music with others, be aware that there is real danger in doing so because:

- A) Swapping all music is illegal
- B) Opening email lets other people have access to your computer
- C) Many nasty viruses can be transferred to your computer
- D) Most music files are incomplete

Question #8

To be safe, social networking sites such as
Facebook:

- A) Should never be used
- B) Require that you register all your personal information
- C) Require that you follow some safety precautions
- D) All of the above

Answer #8

To be safe,
social
networking
sites such as
Facebook:

- A) Should never be used
- B) Require that you register all your personal information
- C) Require that you follow some safety precautions
- D) All of the above

Question #9

When using blogs, chat rooms, email, or instant messaging:

- A) Never reveal your real name
- B) Never reveal your username or password
- C) Never reveal your phone number
- D) Never reveal any of the above information

Answer #9

When using blogs, chat rooms, email, or instant messaging:

- A) Never reveal your real name
- B) Never reveal your username or password
- C) Never reveal your phone number
- D) Never reveal any of the above information

Question #10

If anyone online is making you uncomfortable or scared, the best thing to do is:

- A) Tell a trusted adult about it
- B) Write them back and tell them to leave you alone
- C) Turn off your computer
- D) Meet them and tell them to leave you alone

Question #10

If anyone online is making you uncomfortable or scared, the best thing to do is:

- A) Tell a trusted adult about it
- B) Write them back and tell them to leave you alone
- C) Turn off your computer
- D) Meet them and tell them to leave you alone